Falley Field - Home of the Ichabods

Falley Field became the home for Washburn baseball in 1990. Prior to that, the Ichabods played its home games at McDonald Park, about three miles from campus.

The Ichabods have a 156-52 record at Falley Field. The first game was played between the Ichabods and the Bethany Swedes. The Ichabods won the first game 10-0 and followed by a 13-0 win over the Swedes.

The bench-back seating can accommodate up to 800 fans. The press box contains a concession stand and restroom facilities on the lower level. Media members are seated on the upper level.
