

Washburn History

Washburn first fielded an intercollegiate baseball team around the first of the century. Early yearbooks place the first team in 1898. The first records of baseball were in 1947. The first Ichabod boys of spring went 3-4 against the University of Nebraska-Omaha, Kansas State University and Missouri Valley College.

The school's second team in 1948 went an impressive 10-0 followed by a 10-3 record in 1949. After a 2-6 record in 1950, Washburn discontinued baseball until Marion McDonald brought back the sport in 1957.

The '57 Ichabods went 8-5 and finished fourth in the Eastern Kansas Baseball League with a 3-5 record.

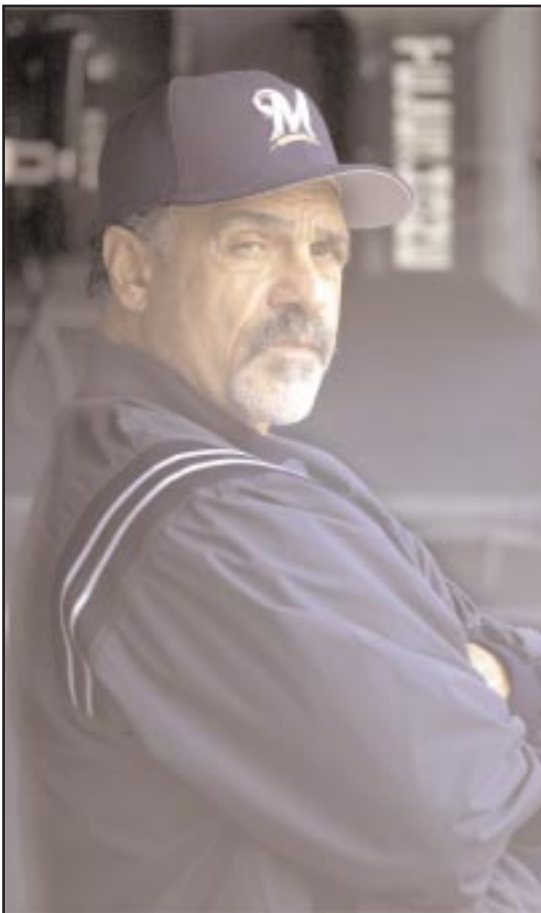

Through the 48-year history of the baseball program, Washburn has amassed a 843-685-3 (.553) all-time record. The Ichabods have had 30 winning seasons, 17 losing seasons and one .500 season.

Former Ichabods that have advanced to the professional level include Davey Lopes (LA Dodgers), Jerry Robertson (St. Louis Cardinals/Montreal Expos), Steve Simpson (San Diego Padres/New York Mets), Rick DeHart (Los Angeles), J.P. Wright (Minnesota Twins) and Travis Stockam (New York Mets). Chad Rodriguez, a second team All-America selection in 1996, was a pick by the Kansas City Royals organization.

DeHart is competing for a spot on the Royals major league roster and competing for a job this spring.

Lopes is now the manager of the Milwaukee Brewers after taking that post shortly after the 1999 baseball season ended. It is his first major league managing job.

Davey Lopes is in his third season of managing the Milwaukee Brewers, he compiled a 73-89 record and a third place finish in the National League Central in his first season in 2000.
