The 2005 Washburn baseball season started off strong with the Ichabods winning 13 of their first 21 games but a tough stretch late in the season led Washburn to a 23-31 record and eighth-place finish in the MIAA at 10-21. Despite not finishing as high as they wanted to, the Ichabods did bring home numerous awards and sent one player off to play professional baseball.

The Ichabods started the season with a 16-game home stand, going 8-8 in the games. Included in that stretch was a doubleheader split with NCAA tournament participant Wayne State and a four-game sweep of Minnesota-Crookston. Washburn out scored the Golden Eagles 55-8 and batted .411 as a team. Randy Wild pitched a no-hitter, striking out 14 and walking just one. Jake Lenherr pitched a two-hit shutout in that series, striking out a team season-high 15. Chris Atkins batted .800 (12 of 15) with 10 RBI and five runs scored while Shane Miles had eight hits and eight RBI during the four games.

After leaving the friendly confines of Falley Field the Ichabods won four straight on the road and capped the streak at five with a home win over Truman. Nolan Deitrich batted .643 (9 for 14) during the winning streak and Lenherr picked up two wins with 16 strikeouts with a 0.64 ERA.

A split with Fort Hays State led the way into MIAA play. Midway through the conference season the Ichabods were looking good at 20-18 overall, but a 10-game losing streak dropped Washburn out of postseason contention. The Ichabods were batting .313 before the streak and were holding opponents to a .280 average. They finished the season hitting .297 in the last 16 games while opponents had a .373 average. The Ichabods finished strong, though, taking two of three against in-state rival Pittsburg State to wrap up the year.

After the season was over Jerad Head became the first Ichabod since Rick DeHart in 1992 to sign a professional contract when he put his name on the dotted line for the Cleveland Indians.

Head, a junior shortstop, led the Ichabods in 2005 with a .376 batting average and earned all-MIAA honorable mention honors. He stole 25 bases and moved into sixth in all-time steals with 56 in his career. He had 16 multi-hit games, including a pair of four-hit performances.

Head went to Cleveland's Instruction League in Winter Haven, Florida, in September and he will return for spring training on March 1.

Joining Head on the all-conference team were second team member Lenherr and honorable mention honorees Deitrich, Wild, Jesse Schmidt and Sam Sissom.

Wild finished second on the team with a .364 batting average and on the mound he led the staff and was fourth in the conference with a 3.14 ERA. His .204 opponent batting average led the MIAA. Lenherr finished up leading the team with a 7-3 record. His eight complete games led the MIAA and he was second with three shutouts.

Schmidt batted .337 and led the team with nine home runs and 56 RBI. Sissom was a .324 hitter with 29 stolen bases, the second most in the league. His 47 walks led the MIAA and his 53 runs scored was the eighth highest total.

Overall, the Ichabods were sixth in the MIAA with a .307 batting average and their team ERA of 6.95 was seventh. They were the fifth best fielding team with a .956 percentage.

All-MIAA honorable mention pitcher Randy Wild threw a no-hitter against Minnesota-Crookston, striking out 14. He finished the year with a 3.14 ERA to lead the team and his .204 opponent batting average led the MIAA. He was a .364 batter as the designated hitter.

Nolan Deitrich is now an assistant coach after batting .341 last year with 26 RBI and 10 doubles. He earned honorable mention all-MIAA honors as a second baseman. He batted .643 during a five-game winning streak early in the year.

The Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, a 10-member conference of NCAA Division II institutions in Missouri and Kansas, was first organized in 1912 as the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Over the past 15 years, the league has undergone several changes, highlighted by expansion and increased participation in national championships.

The MIAA has gained the reputation of being one of the top NCAA Division II conferences in the nation. MIAA student-athletes have won 11 national championships and more than 100 individual national titles.

The MIAA currently conducts conference championships in eight men's and eight women's sports. Men's champions are crowned in football, cross country, basketball, indoor and outdoor track and field, baseball, tennis, and golf. Women's champions are determined in volleyball, cross country, soccer, basketball, indoor and outdoor track and field, softball and tennis.

Ralph McFillen was named to succeed Ken B. Jones as commissioner of the MIAA in January 1997, and took over in July of that year. He formerly served as commissioner of the Metro and Gulf South conferences. Matt Newbery, formerly an assistant sports information director at Pittsburg State University, joined the conference in July 1994 as director of sports information.
