Steve Anson - Head Coach
Kansas State '76

Now entering his 27th season with the Ichabod baseball program, Steve Anson has guided the Ichabods to eight 30-win seasons, six bids in the MIAA postseason tournament, five consecutive NAIA District 10 playoff appearances and a Central States Intercollegiate Conference (CSIC) crown.

In 2004, Anson picked up his 600th win as the Ichabod skipper March 7 against North Dakota. He became the 30th NCAA Division II coach to reach the 600-win mark overall in 2002.

At Washburn, Anson has coached the Ichabods to a 647-

557-3 (.538) record, making him the winningest coach in team history. His overall career record is 670-579-3 through 27 seasons. He ranks 17th on the active NCAA Division II victory list and was 29th in all-time wins in Division II. He is second in victories among active MIAA coaches.

He was named the CSIC coach of the year after his team won the conference championship in 1989 and the MIAA Coach of the Year in 1994 after Washburn went 37-13. His 1991 squad won the MIAA North Division title and finished runner-up at the conference postseason tournament.

2000 was a banner year for the Ichabods as they finished the season 37-21. The 37 wins tied a school record for wins in one season. The Ichabods also set numerous school records for hits, triples, doubles and at-bats.

staff in 1979 after one season as head coach at Wayne State College in Nebraska. While at Wayne State, the Wildcats were 23-22 and Anson was picked as NAIA Area III Coach of the Year.

As a member of the Washburn athletics staff, Anson has also served as men's basketball assistant coach and assistant athletics director.

A native of Mishawaka, Ind., Anson was a true "student-athlete" for Kansas State University. On the field, he was a four-year letterman who won the Big Eight batting title in 1974 (.439) and earned first-team all-conference honors.

In the classroom, Anson graduated cum laude in 1976 with a bachelor's in physical education. He earned his master's in education in 1978.

During the 2000 season, Anson received additional honors from his playing days at Kansas State after he was named to the Wildcats' all-Century team, one of 21 former players to be named to the team.

Anson lives in Topeka with his wife, Dena.

Washburn
Coaching Staff

Mike Koontz

Mike Koontz is entering his second season as a student assistant coach after playing two seasons on the Ichabod infield.

Koontz was a second team all-MIAA third baseman for the Ichabods in 2004 with a .408 batting average. He batted .279 his junior season with 19 hits. He finished his career with 81 hits and a .368 batting average.

Koontz transferred to Washburn from Highland Community College, where he played two seasons. He is a 1999 graduate of Leavenworth High School, where he played basketball and baseball. Koontz is majoring in physical education.

Koontz is doing his student teaching at Topeka West High School, teaching physical education. He plans to graduate this spring.

Nolan Deitrich

Nolan Deitrich will begin his first year on the Ichabod coaching staff after finishing his college playing career at Washburn last year. He will work with the infielders and outfielders, as well as help with hitting.

Deitrich earned honorable mention all-MIAA honors last year while batting .341 with 59 hits. The infielder batted .320 in his two years at Washburn. Prior to that he hit .333 at Cloud County Community College.

Deitrich plans to graduate from Washburn with a biology degree. He is a 2001 graduate of Santa Fe Trail High School and an Overbrook, Kansas, native. Deitrich currently works in the Student Recreation and Wellness Center on campus.

Mike Gilner

Mike Gilner begins his first season as an assistant coach at Washburn. He will spend most of his time working with the pitchers and catchers.

Gilner coached baseball and basketball at Tonganoxie High School from 2003-2005. He also coached an American Legion team that went 50-15 over the last two summers.

Gilner started his college career at Coffeyville Community College and finished at Kansas. He spent most of the time behind the plate and did some pitching. He is a native of Tonganoxie, Kansas, where he graduated from Tonganoxie High School.

Gilner resides in Topeka.

Experience and maturity should be evident as the Washburn baseball team takes the field for the 2006 season.

The Ichabods return 19 letterwinners, including six position starters and a pitching staff that should be led by returning players who know what to expect from the season. Five of the seven players who hit .300 return, as do two pitchers with ERAs under 4.00. Head coach Steve Anson hopes that the depth his team has in every aspect of the game will lead the Ichabods to another winning season and a chance for postseason play.

"I think Central Missouri will be the favorite again," said Anson. "But the conference is going to be a dog fight with probably six or seven other teams with a chance to get into the playoffs."

Here's a look at the 2006 squad Anson hopes will have what it takes to get through the season with a winning record:

The Pitching Staff

Senior Jake Lenherr and junior Randy Wild will return to the mound as the top starters while senior Josh Ray and juniors Jake Loveless, Jeff LaCerte and Brett Unrein will also look to start. Junior transfer Eric Dales and senior transfer Adam Schroeder were injured during the fall, but will work this spring to get into the rotation.

Lenherr led the staff last year with a 7-3 record, 75 strikeouts, eight complete games and three shutouts. His completed game total led the MIAA and his 3.89 ERA was the seventh lowest in the league, leading him to second team all-MIAA honors.

"Jake's a guy that can give you a chance to win every time. He throws strikes and works ahead in the count," said Anson.

Wild, 5-4 in 10 starts, led WU and was fourth in the MIAA with a 3.14 ERA. His .204 opponent batting average was the lowest allowed in the conference.

"He suffered some close losses last year but has worked hard since then and built up his confidence," said Anson. "He's improved his control and can throw in the low 90's."

Left-handed junior Troy Baird, freshman Drew Tucker and sophomores Matt Traxler and Lindsay Prestia will all look to work out of the bullpen, as will right-handed juniors Raub Kirkwood and Keith Barkemeyer and sophomore Sam Keim. Unrein can also come out of the pen, earning three saves last year.

"We're going to have a solid bunch that can start or come out of the pen for us," said Anson. "With only one freshman, we should have an experienced staff that can set the tone for every game."

Behind the Plate

The Ichabods will probably have the most depth but the least experience in the catching position this year. Junior transfer Tommy Mangino and sophomore transfer Mark Stoltz will join redshirt freshman Carl Lisher and junior Tyler Frazee, a converted two-year pitcher. Stoltz had surgery and missed the fall while Mangino was with the Ichabod football team.

Around the Infield

Power-hitting senior Jesse Schmidt will return for his fourth season at first base. He hit .337 and led the team in home runs (9), hits (64), and RBI (56), earning all-conference honorable mention honors. Schmidt led the team with a .988 fielding percentage, making five errors in 434 chances.

"He's a solid defender and if he cuts down his strikeouts, he should continue to be a power threat," said Anson.

Redshirt freshman Jeff Maxon and sophomore transfer Taylor Martin will also look for time at first and, as lefties, could also see opportunities in pinch-hitting situations.

Senior third baseman Michael Hammersmith will look to return to his spot. He batted .301 with 32 RBI. Also looking to play at that corner will be senior Chris Atkins and freshman Ryan Vande Velde. Atkins batted .312 last year playing mostly in the outfield.

Senior pitcher Jake Lenherr led the Ichabods last year with seven wins. He is currently ninth all-time on the Washburn career charts with 143 strikeouts and he is 45 away from the top spot.

Anson will have some choices to make in the middle of his infield. Atkins can play at second base but will have competition from sophomore Bryce Wood and Kirkwood. Sophomore Tyler Blankenship got some experience at shortstop last year and will look for the starting job. Also able to play at short is Wood.

In the Outfield

Anson will see some of the most depth he's seen in a while in outfield. Senior all-MIAA honorable mention honoree Sam Sissom will return for his fourth season looking to start in center field again. He hit .324 as the leadoff man and was second in the MIAA in stolen bases with 29. Junior transfer Lucas Hackmann and freshman Calvin Iversen will also look for time there.

Looking to fill in some time in the corner outfield spots will be freshman Reed Howard and sophomore transfers Robert Dolan and Nick Barnes.

"We've got lots of depth and good competition for every outfield spot this year," said Anson. "I'll try and give everyone a look and see who comes out on top."

The Designated Hitter

Wild will return to his role as the DH this year. The power hitter will have the top returning average after hitting .364 last year with 33 RBI.

Sam Sissom stole 29 bases last year to lead the team and finish second in the MIAA. He is fifth all-time at Washburn with 65 swiped bags.
