

Washburn first fielded an inter-collegiate baseball team around the first of the century. Early yearbooks place the first team in 1898. The first records of baseball were in 1947. The first Ichabod boys of spring went 3-4 against the University of Nebraska-Omaha, Kansas State University and Missouri Valley College.

The school's second team in 1948 went an impressive 10-0 followed by a 10-3 record in 1949. After a 2-6 record in 1950, Washburn discontinued baseball until Marion McDonald brought back the sport in 1957.

The '57 Ichabods went 8-5 and finished fourth in the Eastern Kansas Baseball League with a 3-5 record.

Through the 50-year history of the baseball program, Washburn has amassed a 951-609-3 (.608) all-time record. The Ichabods have had 31 winning seasons, 19 losing seasons and one .500 season.

Former Ichabod Jerad Head signed a professional contract with the Cleveland Indians and joins Davey Lopes (LA Dodgers), Jerry Robertson (St. Louis Cardinals/Montreal Expos), Steve Simpson (San Diego Padres/New York Mets), Rick DeHart (Los Angeles), J.P. Wright (Minnesota Twins) and Travis Stockam (New York Mets) as Ichabods to go on to the pros. Chad Rodriguez, a second team All-America selection in 1996, was a pick by the Kansas City Royals organization. Harley Douglas played for a minor league affiliate of the New York Mets for two seasons.

DeHart, inducted into the WU Hall of Fame last year, is playing in the independent Northern League.

Lopes had a two-year stint as the manager of the Milwaukee Brewers after joining the club as a coach on Nov. 4, 1999. It was his first major league managing job. He was the first base coach for the San Diego Padres for the last three years. He is pictured in his playing days with the Dodgers.
