A New, Blue Attitude

TOPEKA - New. That three-letter word is going to be heard a lot around the Washburn Ichabod football team this season. A new offense, a new defense, a new coaching staff, a new stadium and a new attitude.

Craig Schurig takes over the reigns of the Ichabod football program after spending nine seasons as Pittsburg State's defensive back coach. He brings to the Ichabods a new intensity and a blueprint of success from a winning tradition to Washburn.

"We want to restore a strong work ethic in the offseason as well as during the season," Schurig said. "We've been pushing hard for big improvements in strength and conditioning that will help us be more physical. It's our belief that after you install a solid work ethic to be successful in this conference you have to make it a year-long commitment."

The Offense

The offense is undergoing a major overhaul with a new Pro-Set/West Coast offense being installed under new offensive coordinator Brian Miller. However it will have a couple of wrinkles that look the same as in seasons past. Last season's offense finished seventh in the MIAA in scoring putting up 23.9 points per game and nearly 400 yards of offense a game finishing sixth in the conference.

"Our offense is not going to be a triple-option base as in the past," Schurig said. "It's going to be more of a pro-style offense, but we will continue to use an option game in our running attack. This past spring we were able to install about three-fourths of our offense, so there will be a learning curve at the start of two-a-days."

The Ichabods were second in the MIAA in rush offense averaging more than 200 yards per game.

Quarterbacks

The Ichabods return both junior captain Tyler Schuerman and sophomore Dustin Hickel. Redshirt freshman Cason Lehman will also be in the mix as well.

"We have good experience and depth returning at quarterback," Schurig said. "Tyler is returning and we look for him to have a great season. Dustin picked up valuable experience last season and he is one of the best athletes on the team. Cason is also a very capable backup and he is very athletic. He played some safety in the spring."

Schuerman (left), the 2000 MIAA Freshman of the Year, looks to rebound after playing parts of only parts of eight games. Despite only playing eight games, Schuerman received honorable mention All-MIAA honors after completing 66 of 140 attempts for 1,034 yards and nine touchdowns. Schuerman also rushed for 477 yards and six touchdowns.

Hickel (right), started four games and passed for 1,008 yards completing 73 of 153 passing attempts. Hickel led the team with 540 yards rushing and five touchdowns including a 68-yard scamper against Central Missouri.

Each quarterback will have to learn the new offense, much of which was installed during spring drills. The offense will have some wrinkles that will look familiar. The new scheme will have sets that will be run out of the option with each quarterback's success out of that set.

Receivers

The Ichabod receiving corps return two of their top five pass catchers from the 2001 campaign. Gone is second team All-MIAA pick Colon McNeal who finished his career fifth on the all-time receiving chart and hauled in 43 receptions for 732 yards and eight touchdowns. Also missing is Chris Whittle who recorded 26 catches for 407 yards and was a go-to receiver on third down.

The top two returners for the Ichabods, juniors Darryl Humphrey and Chris Huelsman, were both successful coming out of the backfield for receptions. Humphrey had 242 yards and Huelsman had 12 catches for 176 yards.

Huelsman is moving to the "Z" wide receiver from running back.

"We do not have a lot of experience at wide receiver, but we will have depth," Schurig said. "Huelsman and Kyle Fowler have experience and DaWight Benning along with J.R. Phillips will all see time."

New to the mix is Oklahoma transfer, junior Benning. Also scheduled to join the rotation is redshirt freshman J.R. Phillips. Also, back-up quarterback Hickel could see some time in the rotation in certain sets.

"This offense will give us versatility to throw downfield and use an effective short passing game," Schurig said.

Running Backs

The Ichabods will look build on the success of last season's second place finish in the MIAA rushing race after averaging 204 yards per game. The 'Bods will have to replace Brandon Rainer, the second leading rusher in school history after tallying 2,182 yards while becoming the first Ichabod to rush for more than 30 touchdowns recording 31. He finished third on the all-time scoring chart with 186 points.

Junior Darryl Humphrey rushed for 241 yards on 39 carries averaging 6.2 yards per carry.

"Darryl should be our top tailback," Schurig said. "Zandevakili and Lawrence will give us depth, which will help."

Joining Humphrey is sophomore Andre Zandevakili who rushed for 55 yards on 12 carries and junior transfer Jake Lawrence.

After playing linebacker at Butler County, Lawrence will move back to the offensive side of the ball. At Free State High School in Lawrence, Lawrence rushed 1,267 yards as a senior catching 14 passes for 195 yards recording 20 touchdowns.

At fullback junior Travis Smith carried the ball five times for 47 yards and shined in the spring game carrying the ball four times for 60 yards. Sophomore Kip Kraisinger will also look for time in the rotation as well.

"The offense uses a true fullback, which is something different than in the past," Schurig said. "They will be used primarily as run blockers, but they will carry the ball."

Offensive Line

The Ichabod offensive line will lose All-MIAA pick Anders Grove to graduation and the entire left side of the line will have new faces.

Junior captain Tim Watts (left) will start at left tackle. He is the only returning Ichabod to start every game he played in, 10 in all. With the depth in question, sophomore Matt Durler moved from the defensive line to left guard midway through the 2001 season and is slated to start the season. At center, junior Kevin Pierce will anchor the center of the line. Junior Eric Tatum started nine games last season on the left side of the line and he will make the jump to right guard. Next to Tatum will be senior Derek Young. Young moved before the start of the 2001 season from the defensive line to the offensive line and played in seven games.

"The first team provides experience and they should work well together as a unit and the backups will provide depth," Schurig said.

The Defense

For the third time in three seasons, the Ichabod defense will have a new scheme and goal No. 1 is focusing on fundamentals and develop a more physical presence on the field.

"We made some good strides toward the end of the spring with more physical play," Schurig said. "But we need to be more consistent in our pass coverage and more physical overall, which will lead to more turnovers."

In 2001, the Ichabods forced 27 turnovers.

New defensive coordinator Chris Brown and the rest of the coaching staff is installing a new 4-4 defense.

"Overall we want to improve our team fundamentals," Schurig said. "And we will want to play a lot of people to keep them intense and playing at a fast pace."

Defensive Line

The Ichabod will be strong on the front four with three starters returning and experienced depth will help the rotations.

Junior captain Eric Taylor is moving from the right side to the left side. Taylor was a second team All-MIAA choice as a freshman after leading the team in sacks. As a sophomore, he recorded 35 tackles and seven for loss. Next to Taylor is senior Rolly Gonzales at defensive tackle. Gonzales recorded 26 tackles last season and six for loss. Junior captain Michael Kitchener (above right) is moving from defensive nose guard to the outside right end position. Kitchener recorded 41 tackles last season including seven for loss.

"We have good experience up front, but we need to improve their conditioning," Schurig said. "In this defensive scheme, the defensive front needs to penetrate and control the line of scrimmage and their gaps."

Seniors Chad Gordon and Jonathan Mayes and junior Clayton Otwell will also see time in the rotation.

Linebackers

The Washburn linebacking corps will rely on strength and speed as they adjust to the new 4-4 scheme.

"In this defense, the linebackers should be in position to lead the team in tackles," Schurig said. "They are very much run oriented."

Sophomore captain Larry Schembri (left) returns for his second season starting at linebacker after his stellar freshman campaign. The 2001 Ichabod Defensive Player of the Year led the 'Bods with 90 tackles, ninth in the MIAA. His 15 tackles for loss for 57 yards led the team and was third in the conference en route to honorable mention All-MIAA accolades.

Junior transfer Morgan Dewey joined the Ichabods before spring drills and moved into the starting Rocky position in the linebackers. At Fort Scott Community College, Dewey led the team in tackles with 88 earning honorable mention All-Jayhawk honors. The Topeka native was an All-I-70 pick as a senior at Topeka West High School.

Sophomore John Hoytal and junior Jason Ross will also see time in the linebacker rotation. Ross was seventh on the team in tackles last season recorded 47 stops, including eight for loss.

Secondary

The Washburn defensive secondary returns four starters, although not everyone started in the backfield.

At free safety, sophomore Joe Corcoran steps back to the secondary after playing his freshman season at linebacker. Corcoran (left) recorded 65 tackles last season including a season-high and new freshman record 18 against Truman State on Homecoming.

Senior Jeff Wimpy will hold down the Monster position in the linebackers. Wimpy transferred to Washburn before his junior season and recorded 48 tackles. At the Bandit position, junior transfer and Topeka native Brooks Myers joined the Ichabods before the start of spring drills after recording 77 tackles at Coffeyville Community College, 15th in the Jayhawk Conference.

Fellow junior Chris Simmons returns for his third season for the Ichabod defense. Simmons was hampered by shoulder injuries and played in seven games recording 35 tackles and one interception.

The three safeties are the quarterbacks of this defense," Schurig said. "We have returning players in each position and they will be very active against the pass and the run."

Junior cornerback Darold Smith is the only starter at his position from last season returning. He was fourth on the team in tackles with 62 and tied for the team lead with 44 solo stops.

Senior Patrick Hayes, a two-year starter at cornerback will see time on the field, but he is coming off an ACL injury suffered in the Missouri-Rolla game last season. Before the injury Hayes led the Ichabods with seven pass break-ups and three interceptions tallying 56 tackles.

At the other cornerback is senior Corey Crain. Crain moved from running back to defensive back near the end of the season and in his first start against Southwest Baptist in the season finale, Crain picked off a pass, had five solo tackles and a fumble recovery.

Special Teams

The Ichabod special teams units will have experience on both the kickoff and punt squads and return teams.

Senior Eric Roth (left) returns for his fourth season at punter. He started for the Ichabods as true freshman and has racked up more than 5,500 yards in 151 punts during his four-year career. His 38.8 yards per punt last season was his career best.

"Roth is primed for a big year," Schurig said.

The Ichabods will have a new face handling the placekicking duties for the second straight season. Look for freshmen Aaron DeKosky to handle the kicking chores. DeKosky was an all-conference selection at Blue Valley Northwest High School after hitting seven of nine field goal attempts including his longest attempt of 40 yards while connecting on 18 of 20 point after attempts.

The Ichabod return specialists are senior Patrick Hayes, junior Chris Huelsman and redshirt freshman J.R. Phillips. All three will handle kickoff returns and the duo of Hayes and Huelsman will return punts.

Hayes is third on the all-time kickoff return chart with a 23.3 yard average while his 51 returns and 1,189 yards would place him first on the respective charts. Huelsman returned two kickoffs for 49 yards and three punts for 34 yards.

The MIAA

"This conference is one of - if not the best in the nation with Pittsburg State and Northwest Missouri being two of the better teams in the country," Schurig said. "We are wanting to build this program into a top-level program in the MIAA and by installing a more competitive attitude into our players and establish a great work ethic, we can begin to do that."

Final Thoughts

New. There is a lot of new things going on. First the Ichabods want to return to their winning ways and record their first winning season since 1999 and build on that for the future. This is also the final season in Moore Bowl before the stadium undergoes a massive renovation with construction scheduled to begin immediately following the 2002 season.
