Ichabods in the community

Members of the Ichabod football team spent the day at Pauline Elementary School in Topeka reading books to the students. The Ichabods also went to the local Veteran's Administration Hospital spending time with Veteran's

Members of the Ichabod football team helped on several different occasions with the clean-up in the Monroe School district area in preparation for the 50th anniversary of the Brown vs Board of Education Dedication Ceremony held on May 17. The event featured many speakers including President George W. Bush.
