

Graduate Assistant Coaches

Zac Nally

Former Washburn Wide Receiver Zac Nally begins his third season as an Ichabod graduate assistant coach after spending the last three seasons as a student assistant for the Ichabods. He will coach the tight ends. Nally was a three-year member of the on-the-field Ichabods. His career was cut short after injuring his knee during the 2001 spring game.

His one catch for the Ichabods was a 30-yard touchdown reception against Southwest Baptist on homecoming in 2000. He was also named to the MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll that season.

Nally graduated from Washburn in May, 2003 with his degree in physical education and is currently working on his master's degree.

Nally has one daughter, Allison.

Dion Meneley

Topeka native and former Pittsburg State linebacker Dion Meneley is in his third season as a Washburn graduate assistant coach.

Meneley is working on his master's degree in administration and will help guide the line-backing corps.

Meneley was a two-time first team All-MIAA selection at outside linebacker and a two-time honorable mention pick as well.

Meneley was a six-year member of the Pitt State football team due to a medical redshirt in 1997. In 1995, he saw action in all 14 games as a redshirt freshman recording 22 tackles helping PSU post a 12-1-1 record and finish as the NCAA-II runner-up. As a junior he finished the regular season tied for third on the team with 60 tackles. He started first two games of '97 before suffering season-ending knee injury. He saw action in all 10 games in 1998, after moving to defensive end and recorded 66 tackles including eight sacks. He moved back to linebacker as a senior and recorded 55 tackles (23 solo) with 9 TFLs and 3 QB sacks and was also a 1999 PSU team captain.

Justin Schreiber

Justin Schreiber begins his second season on the Ichabod coaching staff.

Schreiber was the quarterback for offensive coordinator Brian Miller while at Minnesota-Crookston. Schreiber holds nine Golden Eagle football records including passing yards in a game (403), season (2,192) and career (5,399) records for total offense; touchdowns in a game (5) and career (42); passing touchdowns in a game (4) and career (28); passing yards in a game (286) and career (3,520). He was also named to the Don Hansen Weekly Gazette Preseason All-American Honorable team prior to his senior year.

Schreiber is a native of Glyndon, Minn., and is working on his master's in Liberal Studies.

Cassidy McCrite

Former Central Missouri State defensive back and Topeka Kan., native Cassidy McCrite begins his second season as a graduate assistant for the Ichabods. He will coach the defensive line.

At CMSU, McCrite was a reserve strong safety and played on special teams. McCrite sat out his senior year because of an injury. As a junior, he made nine tackles, while recording an interception and two pass break-ups. During his sophomore year, McCrite recorded one solo tackle, an interception and a pass break-up. McCrite graduated from CMSU in May 2004 with a major in liberal arts, emphasis in physical education and a minor in health.

McCrite is a 1999 graduate of Hayden High School where he earned all-state football honors in 1998 for the 4A state championship team. He also lettered in baseball and track at Hayden. McCrite's dad, Pat McCrite, played for the Ichabods in 1965-1966.

