HEAD COACH CRAIG SCHURIG

In only four seasons as the Ichabods' head coach, Washburn head coach Craig Schurig has led the Washburn football program to a new level after building on a 2004 Mineral Water Bowl Championship. The Ichabods posted their first NCAA Playoff appearance as well as Washburn earning their first MIAA Championship in 2005. Schurig earned the MIAA's Coach of the Year for his efforts leading the Ichabods last season. The conference championship was the first by the Ichabods since the 1983 season. He was also named the AFCA's Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Washburn finished the 2005 season with a school-record nine wins and a 7-1 mark in conference play.

The 2004 season saw the Ichabods record their first winning season since 1999 and their first postseason win since 1986 with a 36-33 win over Northern State in the Mineral Water Bowl.

Schurig was named the Ichabod head coach on Dec. 28, 2001 after coaching for nearly a decade in a winning program. Schurig has brought the knowledge of success, a winning attitude and a new intensity to the Ichabod football program.

In his four seasons at Washburn, the Ichabods have had three All-American selections, two MIAA Freshman of the Year and 41 players receive all-MIAA honors. He has been equally on task with players in the classroom with 54 Ichabods named to the MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll, including two Academic All-Americans.

While under Schurig, the Ichabod football program has also seen sweeping changes in facilities with the improvements to Yager Stadium including a new artificial turf and

Brian Miller Offensive Coordinator

Brian Miller begins his fifth season as the Ichabods' offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

In four seasons at the helm of the Ichabod offense, the squads have recorded four of the top nine passing seasons in school history and four of the top seven total offensive years in Washburn history. Three of the top five rushing seasons have been behind under Miller's offensive linemen and three 1,000 yard rushers.

Miller has coached one second team All-American offensive lineman, one first team all-region selection and four all-MIAA picks.

In 2005, the Ichabods set new school offensive records for most passing yards, total offense, passing touchdowns, first downs and points in a season while recording three-straight 1,000 yard running backs.

Miller, a native of Golden, Colo., was the offensive coordinator at

Brian and Michelle Miller with son Alex and daughter Bailey - oldest son Matt not pictured Minnesota-Crookston from 1997 to 2001.

Prior to coaching at UMC, Miller coached for the Northern State Wolves, where he was special teams coordinator, and coached defensive line and running backs, each for a season.

Miller graduated in 1989 with a bachelor of arts degree from Hastings College in Nebraska, and a master of science from St. Cloud State.

He and his wife Michelle reside in Topeka with their two sons: Matt and Alex, and daughter Bailey.

Chris Brown

Defensive Coordinator

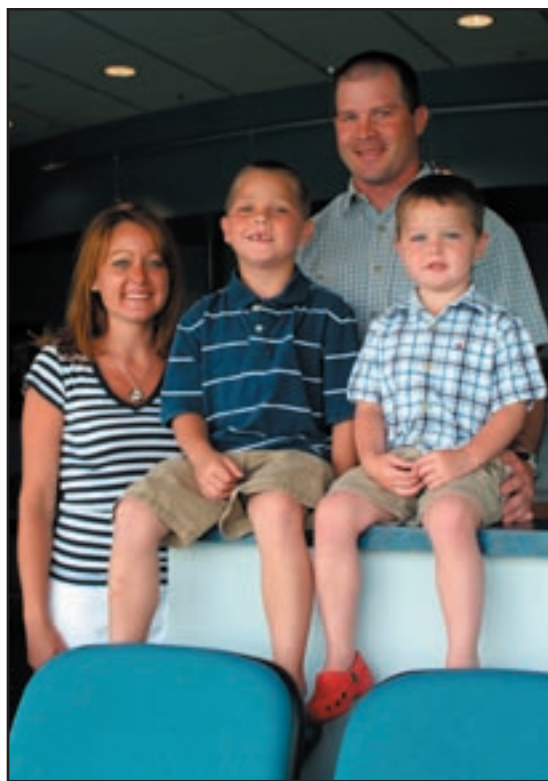

Chris Brown is in his fifth season as the Ichabods' defensive coordinator and defensive secondary coach.

While at Washburn, Brown has coached one All-American in Fletcher Terrell, two all-region picks and two all-MIAA selections.

In four seasons as the Ichabods defensive coordinator, Washburn's defense has improved each season. This past season, the Ichabods forced a MIAA-leading 30 turnovers and allowed 3.7 yards per carry. In 2005, the Ichabods also recorded 29 sacks, which were the most since the 2000 season and the combined total of the previous three seasons.

Brown came to Washburn after spending three seasons as the secondary coach at Liberal High School where the Redskins compiled a 37-5 record from 1998-2001.

Brown, a native of Liberal, Kan., is a 1996 graduate of Pittsburg State University where he recorded 470 tackles in 43 starts in his career at free safety. He is one of only three Gorillas to earn All-American honors three times. He was an unanimous first team All-American selection his senior season and was named the CNN Division II National Player of the Year in 1995. In the championship game as a freshman he recorded a record 21 tackles against Jacksonville State. He was also named to the NCAA Quarter Century Team from all players from 1975 to 1999 at free safety. Brown will be inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletic Hall of Fame this fall.

He and his wife, Daphne, live in Topeka with their boys, Hunter and Hayden.

KANSAS RECRUITING

Recruiting in-state priority No. 1 for the Ichabod coaching staff

The 2006 Washburn Ichabod roster features 65 homegrown Kansans. In only his fifth season as the Ichabods' head coach, Craig Schurig has put a premium on recruiting the best players in Kansas.

"Our first recruiting priority will always be in Kansas. We should and will do the best job contacting the best players in Kansas and recruit them to Washburn. For high school seniors, we want to be their first choice for college based on our program and the University."
