Sophomore Jenna Lawless is the leading returning goal-scorer for the Lady Blues. She had six goals and 13 points in 2003.

2003 in Review

The first season of Lady Blues soccer on paper might not have been a success in the win column finishing with a 4-13-1 record, but from a standpoint of building for the future it was nothing but a success.

Washburn opened its program with a 5-1 victory over Ottawa University at the Lady Blues soccer field on Sept. 3 in front of nearly 350 fans who came to see history. The Lady Blues did not disappoint scoring 13 minutes into the match on a goal by freshman midfielder Meagan Horvath.

The Lady Blues learned quickly what it was like to play as a new program in the MIAA as they dropped their first weekend road trip falling to Missouri-Rolla 1-0 and to Missouri Southern 3-1.

Returning home to face non-conference foe East Central, the Lady Blues put together a frantic comeback scoring two goals in the final six-plus minutes of the match to notch the program's first win over a NCAA Division II school.

The win over the Tigers would be the last taste of victory the Lady Blues would have over the next 32 days as they entered the meat of the MIAA slate falling in seven straight matches including a 7-0 loss to No. 13 Truman State and a 4-0 loss to No. 1 ranked Nebraska-Omaha. Despite the tough stretch, the Lady Blues rebounded to top Northwest Missouri 4-1 on Oct. 8 and gained their first winning streak by topping Missouri Southern the next time out 3-2.

Washburn even went on to continue their streak of matches without a loss against Emporia State garnering a 1-1 tie in double overtime.

However, the Lady Blues would go on to fall in their final four matches, including a pair of tough overtime losses to Missouri-Rolla by a score of 1-0 as the Miners scored in the second extra frame and a 2-1 loss to Central Missouri in overtime to wrap up the season.

The Lady Blues placed three on the all-MIAA honorable mention team in a trio of freshmen in forward Jenna Lawless, midfielder Horvath and defender Monica Ruiz.

Horvath also was named the team's first most valuable player. She led the team with four assists and finished with 14 points total scoring five goals on the season. She also led the team with 22 shots on goal and 53 total shots.

Meagan Horvath was named the first Most Valuable Player in Lady Blues' history.
