HISTORY

SERIES MATCH RECORD VS OPPONENTS

In 2006, the Washburn Lady Blues will play seven of their eight games at Yager Stadium with the only match on the original soccer field on Oct. 27 against Southwest Baptist. Yager Stadium features a new Sportexe field surface.

Construction started in May, 2003 on the Lady Blues soccer field southeast of the Washburn Softball Complex with the removing of several trees and then levelling of the ground. On July 14, 2003, workers came in to lay down the sod that would soon become the Lady Blues' soccer field. The field has portable seating for more than 300 and plenty of room for chairs and blankets on the east side of the field.

The Lady Blues won the first game played on the soccer field and their first game in school history in a 5-1 win over Ottawa University on Sept. 3, 2003. University President, Dr. Jerry Farley (right) had the ceremonial first kick to open the complex before the game.

On Sept. 10, 2004 the Lady Blues set the NCAA Division II all-time attendance mark against Missouri Southern when 1,848 people attended the game. The Lady Blues led Division II in attendance with 447 people per match and 4,020 for the 2004 season.

University President Dr. Jerry Farley had the ceremonial "first kick" to open the Lady Blues Soccer Complex on Sept. 3, 2003 against Ottawa. The Lady Blues won the first match in school history and the first match on the field 5-1.

Lady Blues Amanda Geist, Jolene Silovsky, head coach Tim Collins and Erica Schmidt roll out the first strip of sod that would later become the Lady Blues' soccer field on July 14, 2003.

Before the sod could be layed out, the area on the southeast corner of campus had to be leveled. This process took more than a month to complete.
