The Washburn Lady Blues softball team returns to the field with new enthusiasm and excitement following a disappointing 2005 campaign.

For the first time since joining the MIAA, the Lady Blues fell short of qualifying for the MIAA postseason tournament finishing ninth in the conference standings with a 5-13 record. However, the Lady Blues did finish the 2005 season with an overall record of 30-26, recording a winning season for the 11th straight year.

"We were not happy with last season," fourth-year coach Lisa Carey said. "It's unacceptable for us to play the way we did during conference and we will change it around this season."

"We've worked really hard this fall to correct our mistakes and problems we had last season, and I believe we have corrected what was a problem. We also have another year of experience of collegiate softball under our belts and I believe that will help us as well with our play and our confidence levels."

The Returners

The Lady Blues return nine letter winners off of last season's squad including first team NFCA all-Region Catcher Kala Huske. Huske was also a first team all-MIAA pick after leading the Lady Blues with a .343 batting average with a team-tying high of 29 RBI. Huske will be counted on as one of two seniors to lead the squad this season.

Fellow first team all-MIAA pick, junior center fielder Ashley Webb, who improved from her honorable mention all-MIAA status as a freshman, batted .316 leading the team with 31 runs scored while batting .400 in MIAA play.

Sophomore shortstop Brooke DeVader was a second team all-MIAA pick at first base following her first season of collegiate ball, but will make the switch to the other side of the infield for 2006. DeVader led the Lady Blues with 16 multiple-hit games while batting .302. She also hit seven home runs, which were tied for ninth on the Lady Blues single season chart.

"We have a solid nucleus for the team with these three all-conference performers, and will need them to have as good as, if not a better season than they did a year ago," Carey said.

Sophomore outfielder Mandy Tarbutton was an honorable mention all-MIAA pick last season after hitting .272 with a team-high 191 at bats and 52 hits.

Also returning to the Lady Blues is the other senior on the team, Erin Pierce. Pierce finished the 2005 season with a 7-10 record and led the MIAA in innings per outing. She also tossed the sixth Lady Blues no-hitter in Washburn history in a 1-0 win over Fort Hays State on March 15. She tallied a 2.37 ERA.

Junior third baseman Mikala Mohler returns to the hot corner after starting all 56 games last season. She recorded 33 hits and scored 22 runs with five doubles and a home run in 2005. She had the fifth highest assist total in school history with 147.

Fellow infielder, sophomore Malarie Fellers, started all 56 games at second base and finished second on the team with 11 doubles while scoring a team-tying high 31 runs.

Sophomore pitcher Kelly Swygert recorded a 9-4 mark her first season at Washburn with a 2.18 ERA. She had three shutouts and eight complete games in 15 starts.

Even though she's not officially a newcomer, redshirt freshman first baseman Dani White will play her first season of softball for the Lady Blues after sitting out the 2005 season after suffering a knee injury that kept her out of the entire season.

"all of our returners are expected to step up their play from what they had last season," Carey said. "We have confidence in them as coaches and this fall, all of them played very well and we're looking for that to carry over into this spring as well."

The Newcomers

To help fill some gaps on the squad, Carey went out and added a junior college transfer outfielder in Lindsey Mansfield. Mansfield was an honorable mention all-Jayhawk conference pick at Coffeyville Community College.

Another transfer, sophomore Mandi Daigh from regional foe Nebraska-Omaha, will allow Huske a chance for a breather after catching every inning and every pitch of the 2005 season. Daigh will also have an opportunity to bat in the line up as a designated player.

A trio of freshman will round out the roster in outfielder Autumn Hauck, pitcher Sarah Wege and infielder Tish Williams. Hauck was named her district's player of the year after batting .509 with 30 runs scored and 29 hits, along with 36 stolen bases. Wege was named her team's most valuable player three seasons straight. Williams will redshirt the 2006 season.

"all of our newcomers will provide an immediate impact to the success of the team this season," Carey said.
