WASHBURN HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1984 • This Lady Blues team posts the best winning percentage in team history at .711 (42-17). Sharon Lord and Sally Tracy are both named first-team all-district while Lord is further honored as second-team all-CSIC.

1985 • The Lady Blues set a school record for wins in a season with 45. Tami Dall sweeps first-team honors at the district and conference level. Vicki Jarnagin repeats as both first-team all-district and second-team all-conference.

1986 • The Lady Blues win their first-ever NAIA District 10 championship as Linda Moley is named district coach of the year. Washburn finishes 42-25 after losing a bi-district championship match to Southern Nazarene. Marilee Baumchen and Vicki Jarnagin are both named first-team all-district while Baumchen is further honored as first-team all-CSIC. Jarnagin is a second-team all-CSIC pick. The 42 wins ties for second most wins in a season.

1988 • Washburn plays host to the 20-team NAIA national volleyball tournament in Lee Arena.

1990 • Washburn enters its first MIAA postseason tournament as the fifth-seeded team. Shanna Haslett becomes the first Washburn player named first-team all-MIAA while Susan Waller is a second-team pick.

1993 • The Lady Blues proved to be one of the best defensive teams in not only the MIAA, but also NCAA Division II. Washburn led the MIAA in digs per game (21.53) while also finishing first in that category in NCAA Division II national stats compiled by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

1996 • WU records first winning season since 1986. Head coach Kelly Osburn leaves the school as the all-time winningest coach in school history. WU knocks off nationally-ranked Central Missouri State at Warrensburg in the season finale.

1997 • First year head coach Allison Jones leads the Lady Blues to a second straight winning season and the highest ever finish in the MIAA (4th).

1998 • The Washburn Lady Blues program celebrated its 30th season of intercollegiate volleyball.

2000 • Washburn finished the season 24-12 and 9-7 in the MIAA to tie its highest conference finish in fourth place behind first team All-MIAA selection Jill Gassen.
