✓ THE COACHES: Ron McHenry is in his third season on the bench for the Lady Blues, posting a 42-21 (.667) career record since being named the head coach on May 8, 2000. He became only the fifth coach in the history of the women's basketball program at Washburn and the first new head coach since Dick joined the Lady Blues as the head coach in the 1977-78 season.

In only his second season as a head coach, McHenry engineered one of the best turn-arounds in NCAA Division II, guiding Washburn to a regional berth and a 23-7 record. McHenry guided the Lady Blues to his first 20-win season last year after posting a 13-14 mark in his first season as Lady Blues head coach.

Prior to his appointment, McHenry spent the previous 11 seasons as a member of the men's basketball coaching staff under current coach Bob Chipman. While on the Washburn bench, he was a part of 243 wins. In addition to his basketball duties, McHenry was the men's golf coach for eight seasons.

McHenry has had a diverse coaching career. He began his career as a graduate assistant to Chipman during the 1984-85 season. He then went on to Perry High School in 1986 where he served as assistant boys coach.

McHenry quickly moved up the coaching ranks in 1988 when he assumed an assistant's position with the Topeka Sizzlers of the Continental Basketball Association. McHenry eventually became the Sizzlers' interim head coach before joining the Washburn staff for the 1989-90 campaign. During his first year on the Washburn staff, McHenry was the department's academic advisor.

McHenry played for Washburn after stints at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Kansas. He started for the Ichabods during the 1983-84 season.

He graduated from Washburn with a bachelor's degree in communications and went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University in 1987.

McHenry and his wife, Mischa, have three children, Danielle, Samantha and Ronnie.

Danielle played one season of volleyball for the University of Kansas and transferred this season to Washburn and was named to the All-MIAA first team as a Lady Blue and will also play basketball.

Florida Southern coach Diane Foli is in her sixth season at the helm of the Moccasins, posting a 104-48 record.

Foli has coached the Mocs to four regional tournaments in her first five seasons and in her first season at FSC she went 24-5 to earn Sunshine State Conference Coach of the Year honors.

She served as an assistant coach at Florida Southern for four seasons prior to being promoted to head coach.

Foli is a 1987 graduate of the College of St. Mary in Omaha, Neb., where she was the school's athlete of the year in 1986 and 1987 after excelling in both softball and basketball. She also served as a graduate assistant coach at Nebraska-Omaha, where she received her master's degree in exercise science.

Celia Slater is in her fifth season at the helm of the Fighting Knights women's basketball program, posting a 53-65 record. A native of Dunedin, Florida, Slater was a splendid athlete at Clearwater Central Catholic High School where she was named MVP of the basketball team for three seasons and earned all-conference honors. She also starred in volleyball and softball.

But basketball was her favorite sport. She played it in college for four years, first at Clemson and then at Florida State for current Barry University head coach Jan Allen, where she was the team MVP her senior season. After receiving a bachelor's degree in Leisure Science and Studies, Slater returned to Clemson as an assistant basketball coach for one season.

After trying the field of sporting goods retail and managing a sporting goods store for a short time, Slater became a graduate assistant basketball coach for one season at the University of Alabama.

Slater was then named to coach and begin the women's basketball program at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs (UCCS), where she went from a 3-19 record her initial campaign to 18-9 three years later and second place in the conference. In addition, her defense ranked 12th in the nation and she was nominated for Coach of the Year in her district.

Upon leaving UCCS, Slater headed for New York City and worked for Bruce Levy Associates as the vice president of client services for a professional sports agency that serviced over 100 clients.

Slater then became assistant basketball coach at Washburn University for two years before being hired to take over the women's basketball program at Lynn University.

She served two seasons at Washburn under Patti Dick from 1996-98 and helped the Lady Blues to a 32-22 record.
