✓ THE COACHES: Ron McHenry is in his third season on the bench for the Lady Blues, posting a 56-24 (.700) career record since being named the head coach on May 8, 2000.

He became only the fifth coach in the history of the women's basketball program at Washburn and the first new head coach since Dick joined the Lady Blues as the head coach in the 1977-78 season.

In only his second season as a head coach, McHenry engineered one of the best turn-arounds in NCAA Division II, guiding Washburn to a regional berth and a 23-7 record. McHenry guided the Lady Blues to his first 20-win season last year after posting a 13-14 mark in his first season as Lady Blues head coach.

Prior to his appointment, McHenry spent the previous 11 seasons as a member of the men's basketball coaching staff under current coach Bob Chipman. While on the Washburn bench, he was a part of 243 wins. In addition to his basketball duties, McHenry was the men's golf coach for eight seasons.

McHenry has had a diverse coaching career. He began his career as a graduate assistant to Chipman during the 1984-85 season. He then went on to Perry High School in 1986 where he served as assistant boys coach.

McHenry quickly moved up the coaching ranks in 1988 when he assumed an assistant's position with the Topeka Sizzlers of the Continental Basketball Association. McHenry eventually became the Sizzlers' interim head coach before joining the Washburn staff for the 1989-90 campaign. During his first year on the Washburn staff, McHenry was the department's academic advisor.

McHenry played for Washburn after stints at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Kansas. He started for the Ichabods during the 1983-84 season.

He graduated from Washburn with a bachelor's degree in communications and went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University in 1987.

McHenry and his wife, Mischa, have three children, Danielle, Samantha and Ronnie. Danielle played one season of volleyball for the University of Kansas and transferred this season to Washburn and was named to the All-MIAA first team as a Lady Blue and is also on the Lady Blue basketball squad.

Brandon Schneider is 187-50 in his fifth season at the helm of the Hornets.

ESU's all-time coaching leader in winning percentage (.786) was named the fifth head coach in ESU women's basketball history on April 27, 1998. Schneider, who was voted the MIAA Coach of the Year for the second time in his career in 2001, saw four players earn All-MIAA status last season, including the NCAA Division II Player of the Year Emily Bloss. He has coached three NCAA II All-Americans (Emily Bloss, 1st team Kodak (2001); 1st team GTE Academic (1999,2000,2001); Tara Holloway, 1st team Kodak (2000); and Jurgita Kausaite, 1st team Kodak (1999)) and two national players of the year (Emily Bloss (2001) and Tara Holloway (2000)) in his first three years as a head coach.

In his first three years as a head coach, he has led the Hornets to three MIAA regular-season titles, three MIAA post-season tournament championships, three NCAA II South Central Regional championship games, and two appearances in the NCAA II Elite Eight. He was the first rookie head coach in the history of the conference to win both the MIAA regular season and tournament titles and was the fastest MIAA coach to 75 wins in conference history.

Schneider was instrumental in helping ESU to five NCAA Tournament appearances, including a berth in the 1998 NCAA II championship game. As recruiting coordinator, Schneider has helped attract six NJCAA All-Americans and four high school All-Americans to ESU. In addition, he has also coached three future professional players - Aneta Kausaite, Jurgita Kausaite, and Myshka Wilkerson.

Schneider, a native of Canyon, Texas, was a 1995 honors graduate of Wayland Baptist (Plainview, Texas). At Wayland, Schneider was a four-year letterman in men's basketball and was the school's first-ever Academic All-American, capturing the honor three times. In 1994, he was named WBU's Outstanding Senior Student-Athlete and was team MVP as a senior after averaging 8.5 points and four assists. In addition, he was voted the institution's Student of the Year in Psychology and Secondary Education.

Schneider's father, Bob, has been one of the most successful women's coaches at the NCAA Division II level, having served as the head coach at West Texas A&M since 1981. His brother, Brett, is an assistant coach under former Hornet head coach Cindy Stein at the University of Missouri.
