Ron McHenry, 7th season

Since his appointment as head coach prior to the 2000-01 season, Ron McHenry has quickly returned the Washburn women's basketball program to national prominence.

In seven seasons on the Lady Blues bench, McHenry has won 83 percent of his games going 169-34 (.833) overall with four straight MIAA Championships and two straight MIAA Tournaments. During the 2005-06 season, Washburn continued its NCAA record 51-game winning streak into the regional finals, where Washburn fell in overtime. For his efforts, he named the MIAA Coach of the Year after leading the team to a perfect 16-0 season.

In 2004-05, McHenry was named MIAA Coach of the Year and Molten/Division II Bulletin National Coach of the Year after guiding Washburn to its first-ever NCAA Division II crown in any sport. He also led the Lady Blues to a third straight MIAA regular season title, an MIAA Tournament title and a South Central Regional title with a 35-2 record.

In his seven seasons McHenry has posted a 169-34 (.833) record overall and 83-24 (.783) record in the MIAA. He is third among active women's NCAA Division II Coaches in winning percentage.

The Lady Blues posted a 26-5 record and a second straight MIAA regular season crown in 2003-04. The Lady Blues also earned a berth to the NCAA Division II National Tournament for the third straight year.

In only his third season in 2002-03, McHenry guided the Lady Blues to a regular season MIAA title, a Sonic/MIAA Tournament championship and a berth to the Division II Elite Eight.

The Lady Blues tied for second most wins in team history at 30-4 and went to the Elite Eight for the third time in team history. For his efforts he was named District VI Coach of the Year.

In his second season McHenry engineered one of the best turnarounds in Division II, guiding Washburn to the South Central Regional and finishing with a 23-7 record.

He guided the Lady Blues to back-to-back 20 win seasons after finishing with a 13-14 record in 2000-01, which was also his first season as a head coach at the collegiate level.

McHenry was named the head coach on May 8, 2000.

He became only the fifth coach in the history of the women's basketball program at Washburn and the first new head coach since Patty Dick joined the Lady Blues as the head coach in the 1977-78 season.

Prior to his new appointment, McHenry spent the previous 11 seasons as a member of the men's basketball coaching staff under current coach Bob Chipman. While on the Washburn bench, he was a part of 243 wins. In addition to his basketball duties, McHenry was the men's golf coach for eight seasons.

McHenry has had a diverse coaching career. He began his career as a graduate assistant to Chipman during the 1984-85 season. He then went on to Perry High School in 1986 where he served as assistant boys coach.

McHenry quickly moved up the coaching ranks in 1988 when he assumed an assistant's position with the Topeka Sizzlers of the Continental Basketball Association.

McHenry eventually became the Sizzlers' interim head coach before joining the Washburn staff for the 1989-90 campaign. During his first year on the Washburn staff, McHenry was the department's academic advisor.

McHenry played for Washburn after stints at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Kansas. He started for the Ichabods during the 1983-84 season.

He graduated from Washburn with a bachelor's degree in communications and went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University in 1987.

McHenry and his wife, Mischa, have three children, Danielle, Samantha and Ronnie.

in Emporia, the No. 1 Lady Blues rallied from a 14-point deficit with 10:17 remaining in the game in a come-from-behind 72-70 win over No. 3 ranked Emporia State winning their 34th consecutive game, snapping the MIAA record they shared with Emporia State, who won 33 straight games during the 1997-98 season.

LAST MEETING WITH THE LADY HORNETS . . .

(March 13, 2006) TOPEKA, Kan. -- Junior forward Casey Henningsen scored 25 of her 27 points after halftime, including the game-winning bucket in overtime, as No. 8 Emporia State handed No. 1 Washburn its first loss in 52 games, 61-59, in the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball South Central Regional final Monday night (March 13) at Lee Arena.

Sophomore forward Michelle Stueve scored 12 points, but finished the regional with a 30.7 scoring average and was named the Most Outstanding Player.

The Lady Blues (32-1) were led by senior guard Jennifer Harris, who scored 32 points in spite of aggravating a back injury late in regulation. She averaged 31.0 points in the regional and made the All-Tournament Team.

Rounding out the All-Tournament list was Henningsen, forward Brooke Ubelaker of Washburn and West Texas A&M senior forward Keisha Monroe.

Emporia State was in a deep hole early, not making a field goal until the 10:39 mark of the first half. Washburn held a 17-2 lead before Henningsen snapped a string of 11 straight misfires from the field with a follow off her initial try -- blocked by Ubelaker.

The Lady Blues kept the Lady Hornets from getting any closer than nine points in the remainder of the first half, taking a 31-20 lead into the intermission. Harris had 13 points for Washburn in the first half.

After making just 6-of-29 from the field in the first half, ESU came out blazing in the second. The Lady Hornets made eight of their first 15 shots from the floor, and combined with nine WU turnovers and 3-of-15 shooting by the Lady Blues took a 42-39 lead with 7:48 to go in regulation.

Junior center Denisa Svarova's free throw with 7:56 left in the second half gave ESU the lead and equaled the Lady Hornets' first-half scoring output.

Once ESU grabbed the lead, Washburn would come back and tie four times before regaining the lead with 25 seconds remaining in regulation. Harris aggravated a lingering back injury in trying to stop ESU junior forward Carolyn Dorsey on a layup attempt following a steal at the 2:02 mark, and had been rotated into the lineup afterward for offensive situations in an attempt to give her a break.

The Lady Hornets called timeout with 19 seconds remaining in the second half, and the play went to Henningsen in the post. Her first try was blocked by sophomore forward Amanda Holmes, but Henningsen got the rebound and made her follow with five seconds to go. Henningsen ended up with 19 points in the second half.

Washburn had a chance to get the win in regulation, but a long three-point try by senior guard April Roadhouse missed the mark, sending the game to overtime knotted at 53-53. ESU held WU to 7-of-29 shooting in the second half (29.2 percent).

Henningsen made ESU's first two buckets of the extra session, but WU had answers from Ubelaker and Roadhouse to keep the game tied.

The door was cracked for Washburn when ESU freshman forward Genae Glasper threw the in-bounds pass after Roadhouse's bucket away, which gave the Lady Blues possession under their basket with 3:08 to go. WU couldn't capitalize, as Harris' three-pointer was off the mark and Stueve grabbed the rebound with 2:52 to go.

The two squads traded turnovers, and Washburn was able to get a 59-57 lead with 1:21 left on a jumper by Harris. ESU senior guard Andi McAlexander made a layup on the ensuing possession to tie the game at 59-59 with 52 seconds left.

Harris missed a shot on the next trip down for the Lady Blues, with 35 seconds left. After an ESU timeout with 25 seconds to go, Henningsen had the ball and the game in her hands again, scoring the go-ahead bucket with six seconds left.

Washburn had a good look at a game-winning shot of its own. Roadhouse drove the lane and dished to junior guard Cindy Keeley on the right wing behind the arc. Keeley's try rattled out, and Emporia State could make plans for its first Elite Eight trip since 2000.
