Ron McHenry, 7th season

Since his appointment as head coach prior to the 2000-01 season, Ron McHenry has quickly returned the Washburn women's basketball program to national prominence.

In seven seasons on the Lady Blues bench, McHenry has won 83 percent of his games going 175-34 (.835) overall with four straight MIAA Championships and two straight MIAA Tournaments. During the 2005-06 season, Washburn continued its NCAA record 51-game winning streak into the regional finals, where Washburn fell in overtime. For his efforts, he named the MIAA Coach of the Year after leading the team to a perfect 16-0 season.

In 2004-05, McHenry was named MIAA Coach of the Year and Molten/Division II Bulletin National Coach of the Year after guiding Washburn to its first-ever NCAA Division II crown in any sport. He also led the Lady Blues to a third straight MIAA regular season title, an MIAA Tournament title and a South Central Regional title with a 35-2 record.

In his seven seasons McHenry has posted a 175-34 (.837) record overall and 90-24 (.790) record in the MIAA. He is third among active women's NCAA Division II Coaches in winning percentage.

The Lady Blues posted a 26-5 record and a second straight MIAA regular season crown in 2003-04. The Lady Blues also earned a berth to the NCAA Division II National Tournament for the third straight year.

In only his third season in 2002-03, McHenry guided the Lady Blues to a regular season MIAA title, a Sonic/MIAA Tournament championship and a berth to the Division II Elite Eight.

The Lady Blues tied for second most wins in team history at 30-4 and went to the Elite Eight for the third time in team history. For his efforts he was named District VI Coach of the Year.

In his second season McHenry engineered one of the best turnarounds in Division II, guiding Washburn to the South Central Regional and finishing with a 23-7 record.

He guided the Lady Blues to back-to-back 20 win seasons after finishing with a 13-14 record in 2000-01, which was also his first season as a head coach at the collegiate level.

McHenry was named the head coach on May 8, 2000.

He became only the fifth coach in the history of the women's basketball program at Washburn and the first new head coach since Patty Dick joined the Lady Blues as the head coach in the 1977-78 season.

Prior to his new appointment, McHenry spent the previous 11 seasons as a member of the men's basketball coaching staff under current coach Bob Chipman. While on the Washburn bench, he was a part of 243 wins. In addition to his basketball duties, McHenry was the men's golf coach for eight seasons.

McHenry has had a diverse coaching career. He began his career as a graduate assistant to Chipman during the 1984-85 season. He then went on to Perry High School in 1986 where he served as assistant boys coach.

McHenry quickly moved up the coaching ranks in 1988 when he assumed an assistant's position with the Topeka Sizzlers of the Continental Basketball Association.

McHenry eventually became the Sizzlers' interim head coach before joining the Washburn staff for the 1989-90 campaign. During his first year on the Washburn staff, McHenry was the department's academic advisor.

McHenry played for Washburn after stints at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Kansas. He started for the Ichabods during the 1983-84 season.

He graduated from Washburn with a bachelor's degree in communications and went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University in 1987.

McHenry and his wife, Mischa, have three children, Danielle, Samantha and Ronnie.

attempts, but still shot 56 percent from the field. Washburn held a second half lead of nine at 52-43 with 7:02 remaining, but Southern rallied to cut the lead to one at 55-54 on a Darcie Reutlinger free throw. Jennifer Harris hit 1 of 2 free throws to give Washburn a 56-54 lead, but Nicole Greninger hit a jumper in the lane to knot the score with 1 second remaining.

In the overtime, Jennifer Harris' 3-pointer with 4:26 remaining gave Washburn a 59-58 lead. With the 3, Harris went over the 1,000 point mark for her career. After another Harris jumper, Washburn led 61-58, but Southern came back and tied it at 61 on a 3-pointer by Marina Caran with 3:33 remaining.

Southern took the lead at 62-61 on a Dana-Mae Robbs free throw with 2:53 remaining, but on the next possession, Brooke Ubelaker hit a baseline jumper to put the Lady Blues up 63-62 with 2:27 left.

Robbs hit a pair of free throws to give the Lions a 64-63 lead with 2:03 left, but it would be their last lead as Harris hit a jumper in the lane with 29 seconds remaining to push Washburn to a 65-64 advantage. Southern's Robbs missed a jumper and collected the rebound, but Cindy Keeley picked up a steal and hit her first free throw with 5 seconds left and Megan Sullivan grabbed the carom on the second and Washburn ran out the clock.

Harris led Washburn with 28 points - seven coming in the overtime period and 13 in the second half - pushing her career total to 1,007, becoming only the second two-year transfer in Washburn history to go over the 1,000 point mark. She is the 19th overall to accomplish the feat and the second this season behind Ubelaker who went over 1,000 points in Las Vegas.

Sullivan had her second career Washburn double double with 12 points and a career-high 14 rebounds. Ubelaker had 13 points.

Robbs led Southern with 25 points collecting a double double of her own with 13 rebounds.

Washburn shot a season-low 32 percent for the game. There were 10 lead changes and five ties in the game.

ABOUT THE MISSOURI SOUTHERN LIONS . . .

Missouri Southern enters the game with an overall record of 10-6, 3-5 in the MIAA. Last time out on Monday, Missouri Southern fell to Southwest Baptist 80-75 in Bolivar, Mo., in a rescheduled game from Jan. 13.

Missouri Southern finished the 2005-06 season with an overall record of 16-12 and tied for fourth in the MIAA with an 8-8 record. The Lions return only three letterwinners to this year's team including just one starter. Robin Kantin leads MSSU in scoring averaging 14.0 points per game, which is ninth in the conference. Dana-Mae Robbs is second on the team in scoring with 13.7 points per game, which tenth-best in the MIAA. Robbs is also fourth in the conference and the Lions leader in rebounds per game with 7.9. The team leader in assists per game is Karina Kuczynski with 5.07, which ranks second in the MIAA.

LAST TIME OUT FOR MISSOURI SOUTHERN . . .

(Jan. 23) Bolivar, Mo. - Senior Dana-Mae Robbs (Lecompton, Kan.) returned from a two-game absence with a broken hand to tie her season-high of 23 points on 8-of-13 shooting from the field, but it wasn't enough as the Missouri Southern Lions dropped their fourth straight, 80-75 to the Southwest Baptist Lady Bearcats Monday night (Jan. 22) in a make-up game of a scheduled Jan. 13 contest that was postponed due to a winter storm.

The Lions had a chance late when Robbs hit a layup on an assist from Robin Kantin (Silver Spring, Md.) that pulled Southern to within three at 78-75 with 52 seconds left and the Lady Bearcats missed three of their next four free throws to allow the Lions to hang within four at 79-75.

But the Lions failed to take advantage as three-point attempts from Kantin and Ela Zawadka were off the mark in the final 15 seconds of the contest.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair as the Lady Bearcats jumped out to an early 7-2 lead, only to have the Lions score the next nine points that saw four different Lions find the scoreboard during that span.

SBU responded with a 7-0 spurt of their own and led 14-11 after a layup from Rachel Graves with 12:09 left in the first half.

The remainder of the opening half saw seven ties and with the Lady Bearcats leading 34-33, Cortney Shewmaker nailed a trey as the first half ended to give SBU a 37-33 advantage at the half.

SBU extended the lead to seven at 43-36 early in the second half on the strength of two buckets from Livia Brito, but the Lions responded with a 10-3 spurt and tied it at 46-46 after Robbs split a pair at the free throw line with 13:32 left.

The Lady Bearcats gained their biggest lead of the night with an 8-0 run that featured a three-pointer from Shewmaker to lead 65-56 with 8:16 left after the Lions had cut the SBU lead down to just one.

SBU would lead by nine once more before the Lions began their late rally that fell just short.

Besides Robbs' 23-point output, Kantin also reached double-figures for the Lions with 19 points to go along with a game-high 10 rebounds.

The Lady Bearcats placed four players in double-figures, led by Brito's game-high of 25 and team-high seven boards. Shewmaker wound up with 13, while Courtney Creed and Amber Wheeler scored 10 points each.

Southern shot 45.5 percent (25-of-55) in the contest, but only 26.7 percent (4-of-15) from three-point range.

SBU shot a solid 53.7 percent (29-of-54) overall and a respectable 40 percent (6-of-15) from long-distance.

After being out-rebounded for only the second time all season against Fort Hays State on Saturday night (Jan. 20), the Lions regained their rebounding prowess by out-boarding the Lady Bearcats 35-28 and 13-6 on the offensive glass.

Turnovers plagued the Lions in the first half, as Southern committed 14 before halftime. But the Lions took much better care of the basketball in the second half, recording only four giveaways.
